Double Fatality near Mitchell; Pedestrian Injured in Madison

Traffic crashes claimed two lives and resulted in injuries suffered by persons in mishaps reported Saturday and near the Quad-Cities in 4½ days.

Two women were killed and two other persons were injured seriously in a head-on collision on Highway 111 about two miles east of the City of Rocks road, Mitchell, Thursday.

Pronounced dead upon arrival at Wood River Township Hospital was Mrs. Patricia J. (Carson) Arnold, 27, who had married just a few days earlier from Dennis Reidelberger, 17½ Big Four place, Mitchell. She was the mother of two young children.

Mrs. Arnold was a passenger in a northbound auto driven by Mrs. Shirley Bunker, 26, 304 Park Street, South Roxana. Mrs. Bunker was taken by ambulance to St. Elizabeth Hospital and pronounced dead upon arrival.

Another passenger in the Bunker vehicle was Miss Pamela A. Carson, 16, a sister of Mrs. Arnold. Miss Carson suffered fractures of an arm and leg and multiple abrasions. The girl was in serious condition at Wood River Township hospital, where she was reported improving during the weekend.

Treated at the local hospital and later transferred to Jewish Hospital, St. Louis, was the driver of the southbound auto, William Dowler, Jr., 21, Collinsville.

Dowler sustained multiple cuts to the face and forehead, a large laceration to the left eye, and multiple abrasions to the chest area. He underwent skull, spine, chest, facial and rib x-ray here before being transferred.

State police said the vehicle operated by Mrs. Bunker swerved into the southbound lane of Highway 111, hitting Dowler's car.

Funeral services for Mrs. Arnold were held Saturday at a Wood River funeral home. Burial was at Valhalla Memorial Park, Godfrey township. She was born in Alton and

Quad-City Area Tax Collections In Full Swing

Collection of 1969 taxes was under way today in the local tax offices of Granite City, Nameoki and Venice township collectors who reported that only a small portion of their respective tax charges has been paid thus far.

Payment of Granite City and Venice township taxes began at local collection points last Monday, while collection of Nameoki and Venice taxes by Nameoki Township Collector Gene Rotter will end his local collection period on Thursday, but the other two townships plan longer collection periods, it was reported.

E. R. "Pat" Rich, Granite City treasurer who also serves as township treasurer, has set Aug. 15, 1969, as the deadline for making tax payments to the Forest Redden Co., Inc., in Venice. Township collector, said he has not yet decided on a cutoff date and indicated the pace of tax payments will determine the length of the collection period.

Mayor John E. Poindexter pointed out that the increase $19,900 in the library fund, which ended the last fiscal year with a substantial balance and therefore will require no increase in the library fund tax levy.

Thus, the general fund items are increased only $12,915 over last year's figures to meet the salary raises. This was accomplished by cutting in other anticipated expenditures whenever cuts were deemed possible, the mayor said.

More Money for Books

This year's library fund was set at $148,265, a 10 percent increase over the estimated tax at the Granite City treasurer's office, and Reidelberger reported Venice tax payments at his collection point in the old First Presbyterian Church on Fourth street and Madison avenue, for the same pay amount, amounted to $181,160.

Rotter's tax collection office in the Granite City Tax and Savings Building said that collections since the June 13 open date until last Friday totaled $301,789. Buks of Nameoki and Webster townships are due the last day of the collection period, however, when banks and savings firms which hold large numbers of mortgages on the tax payments behalf of their patrons, the tax office reported.

Taxpayers were urged to make their tax payments locally since 2% commissions are paid to the collectors in the budget to pay the city's share of cost in construction of the Broadway underpass in Venice. This money is already available in the McKinley Bridge revenue fund and no tax levy is required.

The underpass item has been carried as a budget figure for the last three years, although, no expenditures have yet been made from it.

In addition to flat salary increases for city employees, the budget also provides for payment of $8 per fire call to all volunteer firemen. The rate had been $5 per call in the past. Venice operates with a volunteer fire department and all members work on a part-time basis.

The new budget calls for a total appropriation of $48,539 for the street department, up from $37,473 last year.

These items include a salary of $8520 for the street superintendent, up from $7920, and

$533,004 Municipal Appropriation for 1969-70, Up $26,865

An appropriation ordinance providing monthly salary increases for all full-time Venice city employees was adopted by the Venice city council in an adjourned session Friday night.

The new budget calls for total 1969-70 municipal appropriation of $533,004, an increase of $26,865 over last year's total of $506,139 for the general fund and special accounts.

Quad-Cityans are keeping a wary eye on Springfield, where the six-month legislative session is due to end tonight. The house was expected to agree on a state income tax bill Friday night, a proposal to raise the tax of 2 1/4% on individuals and 4% on corporations.

If passed, signed and found constitutional by the Illinois Supreme Court such a tax would produce an estimated $765 million a year with $65 million of that rebated to local level government agencies for general revenue purposes.

It would apply to gross income with $10,000 exemptions. A family of four earning $10,000 would pay 2 1/4% of $6000, or $150.

Other bills set for final House action today would increase the public school aid formula from $400 to $520 a pupil in average daily attendance, divide the state tax at four cents for the first $1000 and 4 1/2 cents for the next $1000, and counties (now 4 1/4 and 3%) boost the gasoline tax from six to 7 1/2 cents a gallon, increase state aid from the present $8,412 and $3,120 to $10,000 and $3,400.

Also set for a vote is the governor's proposal of the 1967 gun owner registration law, a ban on sex education without written parental consent, local-state cooperative in school curriculum, and a general education indicator pay boosts from $37,500 to $40,000 for supreme court justices.

It proposed to raise the tax on race track partnerships, wagons, raise the track administration tax from 20 to 40 cents and police officials.

The departure of the youthful Hampton eliminated a confrontation between Hampton and Mayor Lee when Hampton reportedly that he was making demands as a spokesman for a new organization, "Black Citizens United."

$55 Holdup, Nine Burglaries At Homes, Businesses Here

A holdup in which a man was robbed of $15 and $10 worth of tools was among 20 theft cases reported over the weekend by local law enforcement agencies.

The other cases included five break-ins at homes and four at business places, four auto thefts and six thefts from cars.

Donald Johnson, St. Louis, reported to Venice police at 10:45 p.m. Saturday that he was robbed by a man and a woman of $15 in cash, his wrist watch and tools worth $40 to $50.

Johnson and white woman approached the car in Madison and the man, who was wearing a mask and holding a knife, told him to move over. The woman got into the front seat and the armed man got into the rear seat of the car. Johnson reported to police late Saturday morning that he was terminated from his employment.

presented, but that the discussion in Friday night's session would be limited to demands already made and discussed by both sides.

Hampton, however, expected an airing of demands. Among other things, he said the city council "must act immediately" on passage of an open housing ordinance, expansion of the City Planning Commission to give greater participation and "more meetings" to get people involved in the rebirth of Venice.

Attacks Police Action

In his opening remarks, Hampton particularly assailed "overreaction" by some police officials and said their actions should be condemned by city officials and the mayor.

He complained particularly of one officer, who he said, rides around North Venice with a riot gun. "I think that's wrong," he told the meeting. "We know Venice is 65% black. There are 14 officers on the police force and there are only three black full-time officers. We demand this be corrected."

We demand that there is no high-ranking black officer on the police force and there are only three black full-time officers," Hampton went on.

"Not long ago there was a news release about the mayor making 30 city appointments. Twenty-eight appointments were white. Only two were black. We think this is racism."

"There are other statistics that support this belief. Take McKinley bridge for example. Out of five employees there are only two who work at the toll booth. There are no black employees that work in the office. The Venice government is seething with racism."

One Negro Club Member

Hampton complained that a white officer, one Negro club member, the club director, board of five members includes only one Negro. "We think you can use your influence to change this situation," he said.

He added that a recreational facility in Venice "is an insult" and told the meeting that the new park district building, in which the Friday night meeting was held, "is an administrative building with a recreational building inside has been a recreational building with an administrative office."

Hampton said that Venice has declined 14% population and that the average income of the Venice resident is $488 compared to a national average of $562.

"We request that you do something, or we'll see what we can do, since Dow has federal government contracts," Hampton said.

Wants Unemployed Hired

He demanded that the city stipulate in its contracts for construction of a Broadway railroad crossing traffic underpass that contractors must hire unemployed persons from Venice before hiring anyone else.

As for men condemned in jail cells, Hampton said he knew a jail cell should not be a home, but neither should it be a dungeon. He said the least the city could do was provide running water and a softer place to sleep.

Other demands included re-routing of trucks from off Weaver street and purchase of land south of the Venice Homes project for construction of more homes.

Hampton concluded his talk with a plan for adoption of an "open housing" ordinance, claiming that such action "would give the black a chance

Village Board Arranges Swim Pool Privileges

Pontoon Beach residents may now join a family membership swimming pool, located in the Gaslight Walk apartment complex, it was announced Thursday night at a meeting of the village board of trustees.

Thomas Staicoft, village president, said an agreement had been reached between village officials and Jim Green, operator of the Jim Green Construction Co., for Pontoon Beach families to use the pool on a summer membership basis.

A few days ago park officials, regardless of what had been set, Staicoft said, pointing out that the fee said may be paid at the rate of three $15 monthly installments. The new summer pool is operated from 1 to 9 p.m. daily. Families interested in obtaining memberships may contact Barbara Henderson at the Green Construction Co. office, he said.

In other action Thursday evening, the board learned that legal proceedings brought by the village against the railroad regarding the right-of-way to be heard in circuit court Wednesday have been postponed for two weeks at the railroads' request. The postponement was granted at the insistence of and corrective measures on the part of the railroad companies, Staicoft reported.

The litigation arises after an injunction was filed last month by the village officers against Illinois Central, Chicago Northwestern and Illinois Terminal railroads requesting immediate removal of debris and unloading of culverts located east of the village limits off Highway 162 in Stalling. The suit notes that culverts which were damaged in a July 10 Lake undercurrent that took water into Elm Slough and into Horseshoe Lake have been reduced by silt and debris to less than ten-inch openings, causing considerable backlog of water in the lake area.

The appointment of four new patrolmen was announced, increasing the village's volunteer force to 15 men. The new officers who will serve their duties immediately are Leroy Burch, Kenneth White, Roswell Bennett and Robert Littlejohn.

Those agents seek bids to purchase a new police cruiser and a typewriter for use by the police department.

It was agreed to send a letter to the Illinois Commerce Commission opposing the 4% voter tax increase proposed by the East St. Louis and Interurban Water Co.

Due to a conflict with a Team Town activity, time was placed in the Legion hall, former hall, the board's regular meeting place, trustees adjourned to the fire department garage to conduct business.

The bride was escorted down the white-carpeted aisle by her father. She wore a gown of pure white imported lace over silk.

Summer palms and matching calabash holding blue tapes completed the decorations.

The bride carried a teardrop bouquet of white carnations with a small bow and a detachable corsage. White tulle, lilles of the valley and stephanotis were intermingled in the bouquet.

Mrs. Diane Means, sister of the bride, served as maid of honor. She wore a floor-length gown of sky blue satin. The rounded neckline ended in the back with a small train.

The train flowed into the waistline of the bouffant skirt, complemented at the front center with a matching silk rose.

Violinist in Spotlight at River Festival

Violinist Itzhak Perlman will be guest artist with the St. Louis Symphony at the Mississippi River Festival at St. Louis Thursday and Saturday. Because Independence Day falls on Friday, the regular Friday evening performance at the Juilliard School of Music, recognized immediately for his exceptional talent, he was given scholarships by both Juilliard and the American-Israel Cultural Foundation.

Perlman made his Carnegie Hall debut in 1963. His next appearance was in 1964 when with the Leventritt Memorial Award International Competition.

When he was 13, Ed Sullivan brought Perlman to his television show. After two television appearances, Perlman decided to move to New York. Both concerts will begin at 8:30 p.m.

On Thursday Perlman will play a violin concerto by Tchaikovsky; on Saturday he will play a Beethoven concerto.

At the first performance the symphony will play "Four in One" by Perlman. Both performances will include Mahler's Symphony No. 1. On Saturday night the orchestra will substitute Ravel's "Daphnis et Chloe" for Debussy's "Ives" number.

Born in Tel-Aviv in 1945, Perlman is the son of Polish Jews who emigrated to Israel in the mid 1930s. He says he cannot remember a time when he did not want to play the violin. His first instrument was a toy, but he soon progressed to a $6 second-hand fiddle.

Navy Commendation to Chief Boilerman Kelly

The Navy Commendation has been awarded to Chief Boilerman David H. Kelly, son of Mrs. Helen Kelly, 1423 Third street, Madison. He and his wife, the former Barbara Houghings of Madison, and their children, Janice, six, and Karen, three, have resided at San Pedro, Calif., for the past two and a half years.

He will leave July 21 aboard the U.S.S. Manatee, a fuel tanker, for his fourth tour of duty in the Vietnam area.

The commendation cited meritorious service while in charge of the fire room aboard the Manatee during combat operations from July 3 to Dec. 3, 1968, during which there was "severe damage to equipment and personnel."

"Despite obsolescent equipment, lack of repair parts and an extreme shortage of trained supervisory personnel, he ensured that the fuel bunks were always ready with sufficient steam for operations and personally supervised repair and maintenance of his equipment."

Perlman made his Carnegie Hall debut in 1963. His next appearance was in 1964 when with the Leventritt Memorial Award International Competition.

Since then, he has concertized throughout this country, Canada and Europe. In January 1965, he returned to Israel for a series of concerts for a five-month period.

His success in his home country was so great that "Time" magazine devoted a full article to him. In 1966, he was invited to perform on the television show "The Prodigy" and predicted that "the U.S. and the world will be hearing a lot more about Itzhak Perlman in the near future."

Emergency Work to Prevent Sewer Breaks to be Started

Crews from the American Pipe Co., Minneapolis, Minn., are expected to arrive this week to inspect four sites where sanitary sewer collapses are anticipated in the Nameoki area.

City Engineer Kenneth Klein said the inspection team, consisting of Engineers Planning & Design Associates, had contacted the firm's representatives last week after the Granite City council agreed to emergency measures that would be taken in an effort to prevent the breaks.

Suspected areas where streets or the ground surface will be dug up are the 3196 Jill avenue, along the drainage ditch at 3244 Rodger avenue and in an easement north of Johnson road and east of the railroad tracks.

If inspection shows the sewers can be sealed to prevent collapse of the lines, the work could be done for about $12,000. If the breaks are too severe, with excavation costing $20,000 to $30,000 per break, the engineer said.

The lines first are to be closed off, he said. After treatment, then the American Pipe Co. will run a television camera through the suspected lines to determine if there are leaks at the joints or if there are breaks.

So far, sewer repairs have been made in the city about $200,000 in recent months.

Should the closed circuit television inspection show merely leaks at the joints, a grouting machine can be run through the lines to seal the joints with a gelatin-like plastic substance.

Probation Office Moves To Detention Center

The Madison county probation office has moved to the new juvenile detention home on the old county tuberculosis sanatorium grounds, according to James Reidelberger, chief probation officer.

The adult division will remain in the current office in the old Knights of Columbus building in Edwardsville.

The new court will be in session at the new home, and it is expected that Circuit Judge William Beatty will be assigned to handle juvenile cases after the new court is seated. Beatty becomes chief judge tomorrow.

Reidelberger expects to have a full staff employed and trained when the detention home is ready for occupancy.

The juvenile detention home committee of the county board of supervisors headed by William C. Williams of Granite City interviewed applicants for non-professional positions on Friday afternoon.

Placement of trainees with area business firms after instructional programs at work shop centers are completed also is a function of the agency, Goller said.

Fred Cunningham, Optimist president, conducted the business meeting and welcomed a guest, Frank Salazar, newly-appointed physical director of the Tri-Cities YMCA.

Double-Ring Ceremony For Tinker-Keel Nuptials

Miss Betty Keel became Mrs. Edward Tinker in a ceremony taking place Friday evening at Second Baptist Church.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Leo Keel, 4228 Division street, and Mr. and Mrs. Alva Tinker, 1904 Johnson road.

The Rev. Gus Falter officiated. The altar was decorated with bouquets of carnations and lighted with candles in branched candelabra. The double-ring ceremony was performed at 7 o'clock.

Escorted by her father, the bride wore a gown of Chantilly lace, classic in styling. The Empress neckline had a high neckline and long sleeves ending at the wrists.

A wateau cathedral train, cascading from the shoulders, was bordered with a ruff.

A petal headpiece of imported silk illusion held in place a shoulder-length veil accented with tiny pearls and the bride carried a cascade of white gladiolas and leather leaf ferns.

Mrs. Warren Gobble, matron of honor, wore a floor-length gown of pink with a rounded neckline and tiny ruffles around the neck. The bodice of the gown was sheer. The pink bodice was attached to a skirt with a straight front and a full back. Her flowers were pale pink petals in a cascade.

Human Frailty

World peace will always be a problem because the world is filled with problem people.

were similar to that of the honor attendant, except the color which was aquamarine. They carried bouquets of white spider mums tied with ribbon to match the gown. The maid of the attendant were brief visits.

Tanner Keel, a cousin of the bride, and Billy Gaddo served as flower girl and ring bearer. The former was attired like the bride and carried a basket of multi-colored pom poms.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Keel, a man for Mr. Tinker and the groomsmen and ushers were Robert Keel, the bride's brother, Larry and Ron Tinker, brothers of the bride, Ronald Haldeman and Jim Colton. The candles were lighted by Sharon and Sandra Joyce.

Mr. Keel, the bride's mother, chose a dress of soft yellow taffeta with a matching coat. The coat's hemline was selected a blue knit dress. Both wore white accessories and corsages of white cymbidium orchids.

The wedding reception was held in the church dining hall, and the couple left for a honeymoon destination which was not disclosed. Mrs. Ronald Haldeman presided over the guest book.

The bridegroom, a graduate of the Granite City high school, is employed by General Steel Industries Inc.

Hodge Asks Parole Be Lifted 2 Years Early

A full investigation of Orville E. Hodge of Granite City by the Illinois Probation Department has been ordered by U.S. District Judge Edwin A. Robson of Chicago following Hodge's request that his probation be ended two years early.

Hodge, who was convicted in 1956 of embezzeling more than $1.5 million from the state while serving as state auditor, served six and a half years in prison and was paroled in 1962. His parole was to run until Aug. 19, 1971.

Hodge informed the court that he has now paid back into the business that he was in for 35 years. He said he has an opportunity to work for a real estate and insurance company in Granite City, but that he must obtain a state brokerage license which would require that he be off probation.

Judge Robeson said he will rule on the request when results of the investigation are presented July 14.

Mrs. Lucile Lipe entertained members of the Isabel Bevier unit, Madison County Homemakers Extension Association, in her home, 1735 Pontoon road, Tuesday.

Mrs. Helen Love gave the lesson on "Today's Household Laundry." She said, "Clothing wear and durability, muslin sheets are a good buy. She urged the group to buy two washcloths for each towel, since they receive greater wear. The proper way to fold a fitted sheet was demonstrated."

A health lesson, "Your Body's Silent Partner, the Kidneys," was presented by Mrs. Thelma Ruppel.

The selected subject was a demonstration by four members of the club on how to make 4-H club under the direction of Mrs. Lois Hollenbeck. Three unit members, Mrs. Jipe, Mrs. Love and Mrs. Doris Wilson, had the honor of giving the sewing instructions. Girls who displayed booties and ear warmers which they had made were Jeanne Pashuski, Joan Hollenbeck, Cindy Beville and Julie Miller.

Mrs. Dorothy McCormick, citizenship chairman, distributed lesson sheets on "How to Respect and Display the Flag in conjunction with a recent lesson."

BASIS OF LEGISLATION ON SMUT, SCHOOL ISSUES

To the Editor:

In my campaign last fall, I made no explicit promises but pledged to serve the interests of the 3rd Representative District. This has been a continuing effort.

The work of the Obscenity Laws Study Commission, of which I was a member, began in 1967 and this year resulted in some important legislation. This is also directed toward the future because one set of bills will not become mandatory until 1973. In all instances, I have tried to make my best effort.

Three of the more significant pieces of legislation I introduced this session deserve explanation.

Two bills were the direct result of the work of the Obscenity Laws Study Commission. To protect our children and prevent smut peddlers from taking advantage of natural curiosity, the commission suggested two bills.

The first would replace the existing law on "exposing minors to harmful material" with a more comprehensive one. Not only would it be unlawful to sell or loan any printed or recorded material to minors, but also to sell tickets to a minor to any movie or show which is unhealthy.

The second bill would make it unlawful for any distributor of publications to sell or loan publications that depict the publications he normally sells because the dealer refuses to sell obscene materials.

Retail dealers in the past have often had a choice. Either they offered the distributor or they faced the problem of losing their supply of all other publications.

Complaints of concerned parents now cannot be met with excuses. If a minor's dealer offers them, he may no longer dare to admit he is selling in favor of a raise in profit.

The teacher's problem is that he must depend upon the honesty of the taxpayers for his wage.

Last year, Sup't Ray Page established in his office a department of school-unit representation to better coordinate and to promote the advantages of unit organization. The one-room school has been outpaced by the better facilities, wider curriculum and more individualized instruction of the consolidated schools.

The same facts apply to the office of county superintendent of schools. In many counties, operations are costly, inadequate and even counterproductive when situations could be performed in a more economical way.

I introduced bills to set up a schedule for the consolidation of counties by population into educational service regions. This consolidation presents a better channel for communication between the state and the schools of a region.

My only regret about the statement by Assistant State's Attorney Marshall Smith regarding the appointing of a judge for the juveniles of Madison county. Once again, the dollar rules and we have to do the best set of standards for the adults and one for the juveniles.

If we don't help these children now and accord them the same justice we accord the adults, when they do reach their majority hardened criminals will have increased criminality.

Judge Beatty is very well versed in civil law, a fact I am sure no one can dispute, and he

Not often do those in office agree to abolish their position in the interest of efficiency and progress. It is common sense. It is realistic too, because there is no county office comparable to that of superintendent of schools.

Salaries are paid by the state to the county superintendent, comparable to the state superintendent in coordinating activities. No county superintendent will lose his job.

Educational services remain available to the county superintendent until the terms of the current county superintendent have ended.

Another bill which I considered necessary for the successful completion of the legislative session recently passed the House. It is the bill to create a Rural Telephone Service Study Commission. Certainly there is a problem. Thousands of people in Illinois are served by sketchy rural telephone companies—and they are not served well.

Rates are inequitable, service uneven and complaints by both the companies and the Illinois Commerce Commission. A study commission will fairly investigate these matters and reach recommendations unattainable by special interest groups responsive to the general public.

All of these bills passed and have been awaiting action in the Senate. They represent an honest attempt on my part to further acknowledge the interests of the people of the 3rd District and of Illinois.

HIGHER COST OF LIVING REQUIRES PAY INCREASE

To the Editor:

As a teacher who is concerned about the rising cost of living and how I am going to raise a family with the present salary, I am very much in favor of a raise in pay.

The teacher's problem is that he must depend upon the honesty of the taxpayers for his wage.

After these essential and somewhat complex steps are carried out, there should be time enough to evaluate the "pro" and "con" of the various possible locations.

Airport Financing, Cooperative Agreement

More Vital at This Time Than an Exact Site

A public meeting at Troy last week pointing one of the proposed sites for a second major metropolitan airport has stirred opposition from residents long before joint Illinois-Missouri efforts to assure an airport have jelled.

It is understandable that some object to the proposed site having been chosen without discussion. But I believe the crucial need for a new airport and the tremendous favorable impact it would have if located in Madison county.

Farm property exceeding 8000 acres and bounded by Interstate Routes 55 and 70 and Illinois Routes 4 and 143 would meet most of the specifications for a major air terminal, including a lack of interference with the operators of Lambert Airport and Scott Air Force Base. Other Illinois sites also may be worthy of serious consideration.

What is important at this time is to complete the nearly-ready feasibility study and then proceed at Springfield, St. Louis and perhaps Jefferson City with all the steps needed to achieve financing, administration and an adequate cooperative agreement between Lambert and a new field.

After these essential and somewhat complex steps are carried out, there should be time enough to evaluate the "pro" and "con" of the various possible locations.

River Festival An Artistic Success; Many Attending the Outdoor Concerts

Winning both critical acclaim and enthusiastic response from appreciative audiences who are attending, the concert programs of the Mississippi River Festival are proving to be one of the finest musical attractions ever held in Madison county—or anywhere else. The acoustics are considered to be excellent.

With the outdoor site at SIU-SW utilized nearly every evening of each week for either a St. Louis Symphony Orchestra performance or a program of popular or folk music, the 30 River Festival nights are flowing by rapidly; nine already have been completed.

It would be quite an asset to the Third Judicial Circuit Court.

But if he is willing to accept the position of juvenile judge because of his deep interest in the juvenile problem in this county, then I think the state's attorney should consider him. He would be a good candidate to work with him. Judge Beatty worked very hard for the detention home and wants to see the home used to its fullest intent and purpose.

We took a big step forward in the direction of the detention home. Let's take another step forward and demand that the juveniles in this county are given the same legal rights that we, as adults, demand from our courts.

It is shocking to me that who sit on the County Board of Supervisors are so shortsighted that they will refuse to spend $30,000 a year as an investment in the county's neglected youth.

FAVORS EARNINGS TAX, LIMIT ON COURT RULE

To the Editor:

I would like at this time to outline some of the things that I feel must be done by the constitutional convention.

1. There must be an article providing for an earnings tax to support the operation of government, state and local governments.

This tax must replace sales, property and personal property taxes.

2. There must not be any move to eliminate local government, state and local governments.

3. Remove the power of appointment of other than judicial appointments from the courts.

4. Provide for a better relationship between government and citizen on all levels.

I know that there will be many proposals made at the convention, and that no one

This being the case, those wishing to attend will need to do so without delay.

This week's attractions are the King Family tonight, Janis Joplin review tomorrow and the Symphony with violinist Itzhak Perlman Thursday and Saturday, plus the Symphony and piano Recital Sunday.

Concert books for attendance on six or 12 occasions are offered at all local banks and tickets for individual concerts are available during the day at SIU-SW or on the evening of each program at a box office at the festival site. Each ticket gives the option of purchasing tickets to sit under a later tent or to pay an admission fee to listen and view the entertainers from a grassy hillside.

Those who go once will go again. The final date of July 27, it is already apparent, will arrive much too quickly.

Replacement of Former Industry With New Firms Has Aided the Economy of This Area

While announcements of entirely new plants are dramatic and welcome, most industrial growth nationally stems from expansion of existing facilities. One such instance which merits attention is illustrated by the Granite City Industrial Center, currently in the news due to the departure of one of its developers, David N. Jones, who devote full-time to managing the 18-month-old Steelabrade Corp. here.

At the time the former National Enameling & Stamping Co. ceased operations as Nesco, Inc., in 1956, Jones was liquidated and large manufacturing facilities became idle.

The death of the firm, whose predecessor was the originator of Granite City Steel Co., was a severe disappointment. But Mr. Jones and others helped "pick up the pieces," salvaging the steel barrel production segment of Nesco and making it available to diverse companies, which now number in the hundreds.

It is unfortunate that the nation's nationwide industry changed owners and then fell victim to alleged treasury raiding. But many companies eventually go out of existence, and it is of great value to the affected communities if replacement activities and jobs can be devised. The effort to do this here has been helpful not only to the economy of the Quad-Cities, but to the new enterprises, which have been a success.

March Primary Election Date Has Much To Recommend It; No Month Is Perfect

We were sorry to see the Illinois Senate vote to change the primary election date from June back to April. The House last week approved the third Tuesday in March, and there was a favorable "no" vote of this plan, which was referred to Senate.

A March primary would avoid the summer vacation period, would avoid the yearly school board election week and would enable the primary to take place prior to April, the month the General Assembly expects to convene in even-numbered years.

A primary in April, in effect in 1966 and 1968, failed to achieve dramatic success in its goal of shortening biennial campaigning for county, state and national offices.

The lone drawback of a March election, uncertain weather, is worthy of consideration. But we doubt that weather is the chief factor in deciding the size of the turnout in any election. And none of the 12 months would be ideal from all standpoints.

man can think of them all himself.

However, I cannot subscribe to the philosophy of one announced candidate, that a delegate should not be pre-convined.

It is my contention that a good candidate, and a good delegate, will have pre-convined ideas and will make them known to the public prior to election day.

At this time I am announcing my candidacy, nor am I saying that I will not run.

HAZ DOUBTS ABOUT THE SCHEDULED MOON TRIP.

To the Editor:

It was on the Lord's day when I was taken up into a misty dream. The Spirit showed me the Heavenly gates a joyful time. Then I was were not pearl and the streets were not gold; this was a paradise to show the beauty of Heaven.

As I lay in my bed in St. Elizabeth Hospital, the Spirit told me two beautiful objects had come to me eight inches apart and He said to seal the door to the New Jerusalem.

He moved over to my right and showed me a beautiful lake of fire, and the Spirit told me this is where the moon-gods will land. When we got there, we found a city built on a rock, spreading the Gospel Around.

There is something more than my dream. This is the message I have given to my church.

God has given me the 91st Psalm, which is used in my church each Sunday. Oh what a joyful time. Then I was brought back to earth and my assessor, Jim Barton, working with our representative, Horace Calvo, the amendment was introduced to the house and passed by a vote "Yes" to it.

We need Constitutional Amendment No. 7 because of the higher cost of living plus hospital, doctors and medical cost.

EXEMPT 65-YEAR-OLDS
FROM PART OF TAXES

To the Editor:

I am writing for all property owners who are 65 years old and over and asking them to please write to our senators in regard

There will be continuing studies of performance and the possibilities of improvement in editorial, production and distribution techniques.

Using existing national press institutes as a nucleus, the Foundation is endeavoring to play a central creative role in "carrying newspapers to their potential readership."

The International Press Institute, which originated in the Far East, in 1960 launched a program for editorial training and management consultancy for Asian countries.

A measure of its success is that five press institutes have been started and papers are beginning to finance activities of these institutes largely from their own resources.

MRS. GARY STEVENSON. Her wedding was an event of Saturday evening at Mt. Zion General Baptist Church.

Stevenson-Goodall Nuptials At Mt. Zion Baptist Church

Mt. Zion General Baptist Church was the scene of the evening wedding Saturday of Miss Mary Goodall, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Goodall, 2550 Iowa street, and Gary W. Stevenson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Stevenson, 3131 Colgate place.

The service was read at 7:30 by the Rev. Wayne Miskelley, and a reception was held afterward in the church Fellowship Hall. The double-ring ceremony was used.

B. David Bradford, soloist, and Jerry Malone, organist, provided a program of wedding music. Mr. Bradford sang a "More" to The Lord's Prayer.

Bridesmaids in gladiolus and white pom poms adorned the altar and branched candelabra holding burning candles.

The wedding procession advanced down the aisle carpeted aisle, with the bride escorted by her father who gave her in marriage.

She wore a gown of silk organza and lace, floor-length. A wide lace sash and a long Empire bodice sprinkled with pearls, had a French bow in the front, and the short sleeves of lace had scalloped edges.

The front of the gown was straight and finished with motifs of the lace. The entire hem of the gown was edged with scalloped lace and the train was trimmings with more of the lace. A matching lace belt had a trimming of the same lace, and the bride carried a cascade arrangement of stephanotis centered with a corsage of pink carnations and roses.

Miss Shirley Goodall, mother-in-law of the bride, as matron of honor, Miss Jo Goodall, a cousin and Miss Cathy Goodall, another sister of the bride, bridesmaids were dressed in aqua saki cloth designed with scoop necklines, short sleeves, Empire waists and A-line skirts.

Venise lace trimmed the bodices down the front from

$50,000 Suit Filed

Against C&EI Railroad
A suit for $50,000 was filed for Claude Williams against the C&EI Railroad last week in Madison county circuit court as the result of injuries sustained in a mishap April 26, 1968, at the railroad track crossing ramping operations near Mitchell.

Community-Youth Group To Aid Lake-Park Plan

The nucleus of a community-wide youth council, as yet unnamed, composed of representatives from elected student councils of Madison, Venice and Granite City high schools, is continuing to function during the summer months, it was learned.

The tri-council group was organized following a youth forum, held March 31 at the YMCA, under sponsorship of the Quad-City Social Concerns Council. About 100 local students attended the all-day session.

Formation of the youth group was brought about through the cooperation of Southern Illinois University-Southeastern campus officials, the Illinois Youth Commission and student leaders from the three local high schools.

Future projects for the group were formulated during a series of meetings held last week between students, faculty representatives and Dan Hornberger, IYC staff worker.

An immediate project of the combined student council body is circulation of petitions urging Illinois Gov. Richard B. Ogilvie to sign the "Lake Bill," recently passed by the Illinois Senate and House, Hornberger said.

Quad-City residents will be asked to sign such petitions, to be forwarded to the state executive, within the next two weeks.

Three evenings at the Mississippi River Festival are planned by the student group, who members are the children of attending the Judy Joplin Revue, tomorrow night, the Iron Butter Show, July 10, or the Joan Baez performance on July 23.

Arrangements for the Festival trips are being made by SIU-SW staff personnel, with tickets provided the students from a $100 donation by C. E. Townsend, President of Townsend and Associates, Hornberger said.

A program of community clean-up drives also is planned as a future project.

An adult advisory board consisting of young people, including some of its members Hornberger, James J. Jeffette, Granite City high school teacher, Reese Hoskins, Madison HS student council president, Mr. and Mrs. Laddie Kirkpatrick Homes Improvement Association president, John Flamer, assistant to SIU-SW Chancellor John H. Rendleman, and Mrs. Marie Gordon, Churchwomen United.

The grant was made under the Older Americans Act and was authorized by the Illinois Department of Public Aid.

The EOC received an additional grant of $14,000 in federal funds from the Office of Economic Opportunity earlier this month. This grant will also be used for the older persons project.

The estimated $13,600 in kind contributions of goods and services will be supplied by local contributors, according to Harris.

All reserved seating under the giant Festival tent is sold out for this evening's 8:30 performance by the world famous King Family. Immensely popular with television audiences, they appeared throughout the United States to capacity audiences.

Tonight's concert has been named "Teamster Night" as union members and retired members have purchased a large block of seats and will attend as a group. Although reserved seating is sold out, lawn seating for 10,000 is available at $1.50 for adults and $1 for children.

Tuesday at 8:30 p.m., the Janis Joplin Review and a Chicago group called Aorta will appear on the Festival stage. In April, Joplin, called by many the first female superstar of rock music and blues, took the audience by storm at a sold out concert in the famous Royal Albert Hall in London.

As one critic for the publication Melody Maker said, "Janis broke through the wall of British reserve, loosening the audience, shaking them up, opening them out and turning them on." Appearances on the same bill with the Janis Joplin Review is the Chicago group called Aorta. The group consists of Jim Donlinger, guitar; Jim Nybalt, organ; Buddy Jones, bass guitar

Mayor Negotiating with City Employees

Negotiations with employee groups are being carried out by Mayor Fred M. Fry and his staff in an effort to renew wage and work agreements to those which expired May 1.

The mayor has been serving as negotiator since council members have refused to accept appointment to a special negotiating committee.

The city is faced with police-manned informational picketing at the city hall at midnight tonight unless an agreement is reached before that time. First and second-term Aldermen 223 are in the process of deciding whether to join police as they did last year.

No meeting of the city council is scheduled for this evening, the fifth Monday of the month, and no arrangements have been made for a meeting with officers of the Policemen's union.

The mayor met last week with city hall employees representatives of unions for the street department. Further meetings are to be scheduled.

Action on Budget

The council has taken no action on its budget for the 1966-67 fiscal year, due for passage in July.

Council members have steered away from budget talk during regular sessions, and a quorum failed to appear at a special meeting called a month ago.

On employee agreements, the council members expressed a need for the expiration dates to extend. Alderman of State 100, after the budget was adopted, most city employees prefer to carry out negotiations prior to budget adoption.

So far, the police and firemen's groups have rejected the mayor's offers and have submitted requests to the council for continued meetings.

Council members have placed the requests on the agenda.

The mayor offered police, who are seeking a monthly pay increase of $150 spread over two years, cost-of-living increases of $32 to $34 a month.

The mayor's offer was $32 to $30 a month.

Firemen also have requested an increase of $150 over a two-year period, while street department workers are seeking an increase of $100.

The sewage treatment plant are requesting an increase of $72.50 per month, along with a $15 monthly increase for any advancement on licensing.

All employee groups are seeking longer vacations—up to five weeks after 15 or 20 years service.

Commenting on the situation, Mayor Fry said he is optimistic he can make only tentative offers to the employees. "Any final action will have to be taken by the council."

He pointed out that a negotiating committee made up of Aldermen Fry, Mperior, and Dawes had been named early this year, but the committee was disbanded when it went to the Council May 1.

They are requesting added pay, longer vacations and greater pay differential for officers.

Mayor Partney told the Press-Record he planned to continue negotiations with city hall representatives until such time as agreements are reached or the council is willing to name a negotiating committee. He added that until the budget is taken up by the council, he will not ignore the requests for the past three weeks.

He can negotiate only on the $32,000 which he set up in his budget proposal made to the council a month ago.

The mayor noted the proposed budget of $2,912,148 is $400,000 above the previous year's and included nothing for special improvement projects for streets, which he recommended be carried out with the city's motor fuel tax allocations from the state.

The council in the past month has approved special street work to be paid from general and reserve funds with the total amount to be determined by the city wipers out just about all the money we have, especially with the costly sewer breaks we're having to repair," Partney added.

The mayor's budget includes a $300,000 for maintenance of parks. Last year, the budget figure was $75,000.
